

HAVE YOU EXPERIENCED REFUSAL OR DENIAL OF CONTRACEPTION OR ABORTION?

Researchers at the University of Ottawa would like to conduct 90-minute telephone/Zoom interviews with anyone who was refused or denied contraception or abortion services in Ontario, Alberta, or New Brunswick.

All participants will receive a $40 gift card to amazon.ca. Participation is both voluntary and confidential.

You are eligible if you were refused or denied contraception or abortion in 2012 or later.

If you would like more information about the study, please email the study team at:

ws-stu01@uottawa.ca

* Refusal or denial often known as belief-based denial or “conscientious objection” of care refers to refusal by a healthcare professional to provide a legal, patient-requested medical service or treatment that falls within their scope of work and qualifications, based on their personal or religious beliefs.

uOttawa